Utah Appaloosa Horse Club

Letter from the Editor

Hello All! I hope your summer is rolling along as you like. This is a busy time for all of us. We are right in the middle of show season and it's the perfect time for trail riding. Hope you are out enjoying the nice weather and spending time with your horses. Be safe and have fun!

You have anything to be included in the Smoke Signal please e-mail me by the end of the month. I am happy to include any announcements, ads, photos or events you have.

Susan

The "Days of 47" All Horse
Parade is Saturday July 10!
Celeste Spradling has registered a group for Appaloosas and is looking for riders to join her in the parade.
Please contact Celeste ASAP
for more info. 801-455-7943

If you missed the Regional Show in June, you missed out! We had a great show! It was a fantastic time to show off our horses and reconnect with friends we haven't seen in a while. Show results are posted on Appaloosa.com.

We also had an exciting Stock Saddle Race! The race was close but "GB Run Forrest Run" and Ileen Helfrich of Bluffdale pulled off a win in the last 50 yards. Second place went to Robb Martin and "Gojn Lil Comanche". Also running was Kathy Capell on "CA Touch of Nave" and Ileen's daughter.

Celeste Spradling's sister works in commercial arts and can make ads, posters, flyers, cards, etc. from photos of members on their horses.

Congratulations to Utah's own Kandice Oyler on a VERY successful National show! Kandice and "Classic Honky Tonk" earned the National Championship for NP Saddle Seat Pleasure, placed 6th in Open Saddle Seat Pleasure and 9th in NP 35 and over Hunter Under Saddle! Kandice's newest addition, "First Class Flyer" is the new National Champion Hunter In Hand Yearling filly. And on "Zipos Conceited Lady," Kandice placed 3rd in NP 35 and over Showmanship. Great job Kandice!!!
